During the thirteen years that a student is enrolled in the public school system, he is exposed to many varied learning experiences. These experiences are often reflected in the facial expressions and lives of the pupils.

In the early years, these experiences are often reflected in learning facts necessary for their future life. The intermediate years mark the beginning of specialization in particular courses of study dealing with grammar practices and the perfection of basic mathematical skills. The final three years bring more intense studies branching off in particular fields, such as commercial courses, college preparatory and industrial arts, to help prepare them for life. More importantly, however, is the application of the student as he develops into a well-rounded individual throughout the years. It is the desire of this yearbook staff to trace the beginning and developments of these expressions as they establish themselves in today's world.

SENIOR: "Flush 'em Out!" says Dave Bauer.

JUNIOR: Suzanne Myers and Deanna Slattery portray Pen the Panthers.

Homecoming Highlights

The Homecoming game took place on October 30 with the Hicksville Aces playing the Payne Panthers.

The festivities began with a parade led by the H.H.S. Marching Band, which started at the High School and ended at the football field. Each class constructed a float which contributed to the spirit of the evening.

Reigning over the activities was Queen Jane Wonderly, with her attendants: Senior Deb Thiel, Junior Jan Briggs, Sophomore Pam Gambrel, and Freshman Linda Hayes.

Elected by the football players to escort the Queen was Rex Gloor. The Senior escort was Rick Miller, Junior Barry Conley, Sophomore Jim Thiel, and Freshman Stan Hostetler.

1970 Football Season

The Aces defeated the Panthers by a score of 22-14. Adding this victory to the list, the Aces have not been defeated in a Homecoming game for seven years.

A dance, sponsored by the Seniors rounded out the evening's festivities. Featured was the "Iron Horse" from Ft. Wayne, Indiana.

Ace Leo Camp clutches the football as he is pursued by a Payne Panther.

Driving for the extra yardage is halfback Rich Lyons.

Seniors Present "Meet

Under the direction of Miss Sandra Briedenbaugh, sixteen seniors presented "Meet Me at the Prom" on November 13-14.

This play was a modern high school comedy in which several different stories were enacted. One story is of Lucy Trainor, a plain girl trying to make a place for herself in the world. Another was of Sheila Rollins and Julia Cartwright, who were both scheming to become Queen of the Prom. The last main plot was centered around the theft of $300, the innocent accused, and the guilty finally being revealed.

"Just a few more stitches," says Mom Madigan (Brenda Dowell) to Mrs. Trainor (Ruth Blankenbecker) and Miss Fanshaw (Ann Tustison).

"Do you notice something wrong with the air in here?" Winnie Clark (Laura Green) asks Sheila Rollins (Lora Stuckman) as Julia Cartwright (Deb Fritz) and Elsie Winters (Joan Kaduk) agree.

"Don't do something you'll be sorry for fellows" says Don Leonard (Lenny Guilford) to Pudge Burnett (Mike Blasing) and Bing Wilson (Terry Gloor).

Seniors were guests at the 1971 Prom, "Stairway to the Stars," on May 15. Escorting the friends, serving the banquet and providing some of the entertainment were the twenty waiters and waitresses.

Introducing the evening's guest entertainer, Mr. Reeter Hutchinson, was Joe Beck, Junior Class President. The magician did many tricks with scarves, rabbit-in-the-hat, birds, and up-side down pop bottle.

Following the banquet, there was a formal dance, in which "Life" played. With its conclusion, the couples changed to casual attire and made their way to Defiance to the C&H Bowling Alley for the post-Prom activities.

Here the couples ate, bowled, and played cards. The Junior mothers and fathers provided the refreshments and acted as chaperones.

Juniors and Seniors Share a Memorable Evening

Magician Hutchinson's helpers for his "slicing the girl in half act" were Bruce Guilford, Deb Fritz, and Dave Rowan.

Several couples seen making the most of the evening are Diane Cole, Les Smith; Juleene Tietz, Dan Cole ; and Diane Husted, Gary Martin.

Dancing to the music of the "Life" and enjoying the evening are Cindy McDonald and Dave Wonderly.

Senior boys at the banquet are Ray Schliesser, Ed Herbst, Jeff Andrews, Bob Myers, Terry Schooley, Terry Gloor, Larry Wonderly, Rick Sabo, and Mike Blasing.

Juniors Present:

Cheerleaders Dimple (Jan Briggs), Mitzi (Chris Cherry), and Cindy (Jeanette Sabo) are caught in a trance by sportscaster Barry Conley over the very thought of the Central High Frogs.

On April 2 and 3 the Junior Class presented, "They Run In Our Family." They run in the Pennywinner family — and how. They run, job, do push-ups and all help to do their part to make their household appear like a gym. All, that is, except Mom and teenager Peggy who insist that life cannot revolve around athletics just because Dad coaches the Central High Frogs.

Dad's football teams have lost 25 straight and play arch-rival Northview on Friday night. As the big game approaches, pressure and pandemonium mount. Dad is so confident of victory that he agrees to resign if the Frogs lose. It's Peggy who hilariously manages to save the day — and the game — as she and Mom ultimately decide "if you can't beat 'em, join 'em."

"They Run in Our Family"

"If we don't win the game Friday night, I'll resign as Coach of Central High Frogs," says Coach Sam (Mike Christman).

Gary Francies portrays the friendly postman with a singing postcard.

Carol Andrews (Peggy) wins the game and tells her best friend Paula Hook (Midge) without knowing her dad is right behind her.

The appearance of the SPOONDRIFT changed some in the last year under the direction of co-editors Harriet Bell and Susan Bruggeman. These changes were a red offset masthead and a junior high page every week.

The SPOONDRIFT is a member of the NSPA where they received a first-class rating, as the paper did last year. In NODJA competition for 1969-70 the paper received a Best of Class and for 1970-71 entry an Honorable Mention was given to the paper.

The sports column received an Honorable Mention as did 'Where It's At' by Deidre Bailey also in NODJA competition.

Banquet Convention Highlighted Club Year

The Hicksville Chapter of the Junior Classical League — known as Latin Club was this year headed by: President (Consul), Stan Rowan; Vice President (Vice Consul), Pam Gambrel; Secretary (Scriba), Roxanne Turnbull; Treasurer (Quaester), Cindy Etchey; Sergeant-at-Arms, Gary Yoder. Activities for the 1970-71 school year:

Initiation for the Latin I slave students was held in September. There was a slave day during school time, on which the slaves had to come dressed as or representing their zodiac sign.

Roman Saturnalia, the counterpart of Christmas, was held in December. A queen, king, princess, and prince were chosen by lottery and reigned over the festivities.

In March, 37 members attended the state convention in Columbus entering project, arts, crafts, and scrapbook contests. The club did not receive any awards.

Roman Banquet was the highlight of May. As the Roman citizens reclined, slaves (8th grade, incoming Latin I class) waited on their whims and served their banquet.

GAA Sponsors

The aim of the Girls' Athletic Association was to develop athletic skills, sportsmanship and friendship through competition.

Girls competed with other area schools in volleyball, basketball, and track.

Intramurals were held in volleyball and basketball with seniors acting as captains.

Interested members bowled during the spring months. In March, the two girls from each grade with the highest average travelled to compete with other schools in a Defiance bowling tournament.

For the first time this year a basketball tournament for GAA was held. The Hicksville organization sponsored the event that lasted for two Saturdays, inviting ten area schools.

The club sponsored a skating party, attended a gymnastic performance at South Side High School and held a swimming party.

At the year-end banquet, members received pins for their participation throughout the year. Miss GAA, Jan Carr, and her attendant, Cindy McDonald, reigned over the evening.

Officers for the eighty-member club for the year were President, Jan Carr; Vice-President, Deb Thiel; Secretary, Diane Husted; Treasurer, Sally Stickney. Mrs. Jean Siler was the club's advisor.

Talents at Ensemble Contest

Twenty-five members of the Hicksville High School band and chorus attended the High School Solo and Ensemble Contest held at Bowling Green State University Saturday, February 27.

The students picked up five superiors, six excellents, and one good, to bring home a very fine all-around record for Hicksville.

Ruth Blankenbeckler, Diane Cole and Lianna Quick display their musical talents by their songs in the 1971 Coronation.

Vocalists Ruth Blankenbeckler, Mary Peters, Ann Terry, Patt Obendorf, Sherry Smith and Lianna Quick took solos as well as an ensemble to solo and ensemble contest.

Studies in English

Students are required to take four units of English during their years at Hicksville High School. The courses available include grammar, literature, and speech.

English IX students concentrate on studying grammar and general literature. Six book reports are required of the freshmen also.

Introducing the Sophomores to Shakespearean literature is one of the main objectives of English X. Poetry and short stories by American and British authors are also included in their course of study.

Emphasis on American literature comes in Junior English. The students learn meanings and interpretations of life in the United States.

Term papers were required for Seniors taking English XII. The course consisted of the study of British works and authors. The outside reading of Alice In Wonderland, was a new project this year.

Speech helped juniors and seniors relax and enjoy public speaking. Various types of speech, interviews, and pantomimes were given. The students participated in a contest entitled Voice of Democracy, sponsored by the American Legion.

ABOVE: Senior Steve Metz practices using visual aids for his next speech as Randy Hostetler and Terry Gloor listen. BELOW: English IV students, Rick Scranton and Lonnie Watson, follow as Diane Cole points out an important passage in the discussion of a poem.

Include Many Things

ABOVE: Sophomore English students Dave Cottrell, Jim Thiel and Jane Ewing find that besides reading, making a bulletin board can be an important part in their study of our language. RIGHT: Cheryl Ballinger gives an oral book report which is required of all freshmen.

Juniors Steve Kees, Paula Hook and Bob Yoder look up vocabulary word meanings for their weekly quiz.

Students Study

ABOVE: Latin I students, Larry Kenner and Laren Wittig check the route of a famous explorer's journey with the textbook story.

HHS offers two years of Latin, which is the basis for all the Romance Languages. First year Latin is mainly concerned with vocabulary and grammar, while a large part of Latin II is spent in translating excerpts of Caesar's Gallic Wars.

In both courses students learn about Roman mythology and their ancient civilization.

Much about these two subjects are included in the Latin notebooks that are required by both Latin I and II students at the conclusion of the courses.

Latin II students Gail Tonneas and Stan Rowan are getting an early start on their Latin notebooks this year.

New Languages

Spanish I students Stan Hostetler, Cheryl Giffhorn and Deb Fowler look over the newest Spanish magazines to see if they can read the articles in it.

Learning the basis of the Spanish language is the main concern of Spanish I students. Their time is spent learning many new foreign words and phrases. Once their vocabulary is started, students go on to master the grammar rules to be put to use in basic composition.

Spanish II students reviewed tenses of words, use and agreement of nouns and adjectives, numbers, and all verbs. With this base they better their speaking skills to prepare them for college Spanish and for use in travel.

This year for the first time a Spanish III course was offered. This involves the reading of Spanish magazines, newspapers and documents.

Spanish II students ponder over their latest test.

Social Study Courses

Historical studies at Hicksville High School begins in the tenth grade with the study of World History. Students in this elective course learn about our world from its first recorded history.

American History required for juniors encompasses the study of America's history past and present.

Jim Mullens and Susan Bruggeman show Janet Pepple a famous Civil War battle for American History.

Government students Pam Giffhorn, Jeff Andrews and Mike Phillips prepare to answer questions from classmates.

Talk of Past and Present

Senior Government students learn about the fundamentals of our American governmental system to help students effectively understand their civil rights to the fullest extent.

Geography students study various things about the physical conditions of our world in its current state as well as past events and happenings.

Geography students Tom Haase, Don Baumgartner and Joe Timbrook check the daily papers for events happening in their current place of study.

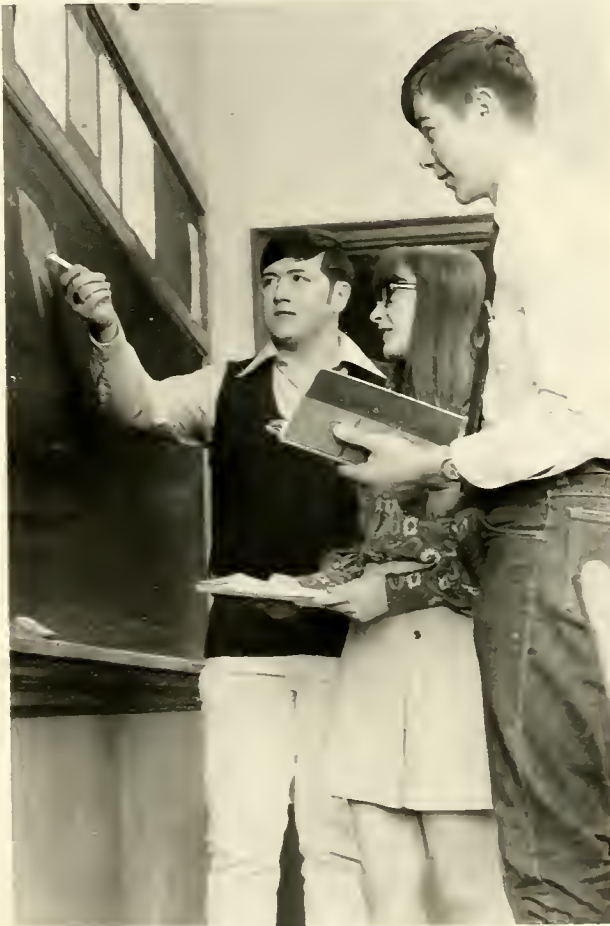

World History students work on maps to help them understand early historical events.

Mathematicians Solve Problems . . .

General Math students work on drills to increase their knowledge of the subject.

Randy Hostetler tries to explain to Carol Harter and Ernie Hurni how he arrived at his answer.

Six math courses are offered to students at HHS. General Math students relate their studies to everyday situations, to give them practice applications of arithmetic. Algebra students work with literal numbers, formulas and equations. Geometry helps the student do his work in a logical manner and work with proofs. Trigonometry and Analytic Geometry, offered to seniors for a semester each, give the students a taste of college mathematics.

Tim Greutman dictates problems for Algebra I classmate Carol Guerriero to solve.

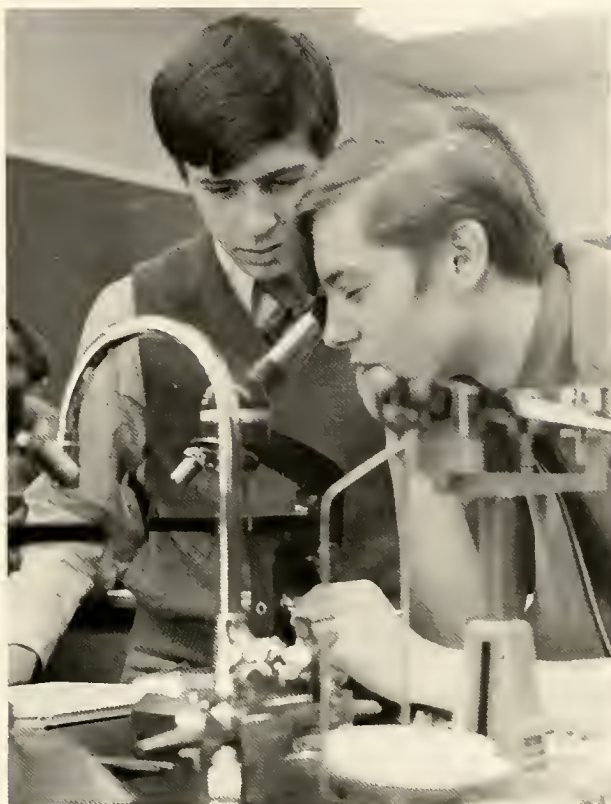

Scientists Discover New Ones

General Science, required of Freshmen, encompasses a wide variety of topics and provides a basis for future science courses open to students wishing to take them.

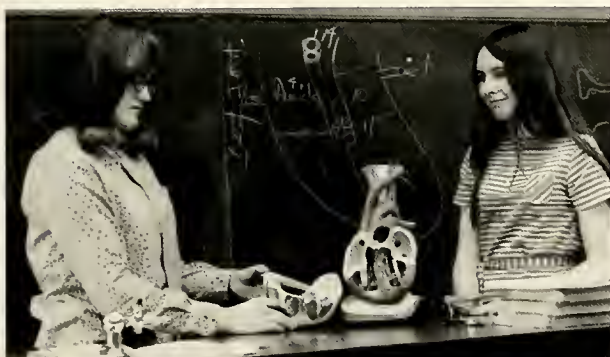

Biology is basically the study of the living world. Students study everything from microscopic specimens to the world's largest mammals.

The relationship between math and science is stressed in Chemistry, an elective open to any Junior or Senior student. Students analyzed mixtures and compounds and solved complicated chemical and mathematical equations.

Senior Physics students worked with relativity, mechanical problems and other universal laws.

Clerical Records, Business English, Typing, Shorthand, General Business, Office Practice and Bookkeeping are offered to HHS students preparing to enter the world of business.

Students Receive

In Bookkeeping II, coming up with the right totals is very important. Here Jo Kaduk checks her total with Pat Coplin.

BELOW: Office Practice girls Pam Shull and Ann Tustison learn how to file geographically.

Clerical Records students study practical business record keeping situations.

Satisfactory completion of these subjects enables young people to go directly into full-time jobs upon graduation.

Business Background

Typing I students take a timed writing to increase their accuracy.

Many Seniors, to fulfill their new four year English requirement, take Business English. Here Dolly Smith, Rex Gloor and Ernie Hurni compose a business letter.

Judy Fogle, Deidre Bailey and Ron Gump compare notes in balancing their Book-keeping I books.

Deb Thiel and Lora Stuckman are mixing colors to find just the right shade for their next project in Art I.

Artists Explore Color

First and second year students explored many different phases of art. Design fundamentals and introductions to color were studied. A ceramics program that included pottery and glazing was a part of the second semester class work. Toward the end of the year students tried their hand at drawing out-of-doors scenes.

Second year artists Bill Keeley and Shirley Mendenhall put the finishing touches on their latest paintings.

Safety Is Stressed in Driver's Training

Any student at least 16 years of age may enroll in the driver's training course which is offered each semester.

Students are required to have a temporary driving permit and to have spent thirty hours in the classroom and seven hours behind the wheel before they may obtain their driver's license.

The purpose of this class is to teach young people to drive safely and correctly.

Diane Husted finds that studying from the textbook about the various parts of a car is just as important to a young driver as knowing how to handle it.

Sharon Finzer and Tom Haase watch Marcia Hook as she tries to parallel park.

Home Economics Aid Future Homemakers

Cooking is a big part of any young woman's life. ABOVE: Suzanne Helsel, Patty Obendorf and Kim Dietz find that preparing a pizza properly is a good way to any man's heart.

Learning to be a good housewife is a necessity in every girl's life. This year Home Economics I, II, IV, was taught by Miss Joanne Turner.

Home Ec. I students concentrated on cooking and creative stitchery. The making of aprons, blouses and dresses were requirements for the second year course. Girls taking Home Economics IV studied family relations to prepare them for married life. They also learned the basics of color design and interior decorating and spent some time knitting and crocheting.

BELOW: Home Ec. I students work to complete their projects for grading.

Keith Yontz, Bruce Hart and Brent McCormack cut a piece of wood to finish their latest Industrial Arts project.

Industrial Arts Develops Skills

Bob Bailey and Paul Karris demonstrate some of their knowledge in metal welding as applied in the Industrial Arts II class.

Industrial Arts provides its students with a solid background for the technical fields they might enter upon graduation.

First year students concentrate their efforts on wood. Going by their own preliminary drawings the boys fashion various projects required to complete the course.

Experienced students in Industrial Arts II and III work with more detailed projects using wood, electricity and metal.

Students Study

Physical Education classes at Hicksville High School are open to all students from grades seven through twelve.

Both boys and girls participate in such sports as basketball, volleyball, soccer, track, softball and tennis.

They developed coordination by tumbling and gymnastics. The spring-board, mini tramp, trampoline, parallel bars and balance beam were some of the equipment used.

the Mind and Body

Health students studied about various diseases, good posture, first aid, smoking and drugs during the course of the year. Girls and boys classes combined to watch films presented to them by instructors, Mr. Al Bellisari and Mrs. Jean Siler.

Health students studied many functions of the human body. Jill Burley, Rick Craig and Mary Peters glance at their books for some of the answers.

Psychology and Sociology courses were both offered to HHS students this year. Each lasted one semester and were taught by Mr. George Cherry.

Juniors and seniors taking psychology studied ways of becoming responsible young adults by learning how to solve personal problems.

Sociology involves the study of groups of people. Pupils explored man's environment, culture and social patterns.

In both courses students unraveled thought provoking problems, completed worksheets and learned vocabulary words.

Filling in their daily work sheets for Psychology are Ruth Blankenbeckler, Lori Stuckman, Ron Tuttle and Joe Beck.

39 HHS Students

Vocational School student council president Mike Christman gives the morning announcements to vocational students.

Fifteen seniors and twenty-four juniors planned for their future by attending the vocational school to further their knowledge in their chosen field of study. Study fields ranged from accountant clerk to vocational horticulture.

The students attend their regular classes either in the morning or the afternoon and work at their vocations the other part of the day.

Most of the classes are those belonging to a two-year program.

Assistant Coach, Bill Metz and Head Coach Al Bellisari talk about the upcoming game.

Hicksville's Aces finished out their 1970 football season with a 5-2-1 record against tough competition.

Experience proved valuable in the mud-ridden Antwerp and Hilltop games where the Aces were dealt victories of 36-6 and 40-14, respectively, over these first-year league members.

The following week, Fairview managed to tie the Aces 12-12 with a rally in the fourth quarter.

The Aces met the Payne Panthers with the Northwest Buckeye League Crown at stake. Hicksville's defense held on while the offensive machine rolled up a 22-14 Homecoming victory.

In the following game the Aces, inspired by the Seniors, conquered the Edon bombers with a 12-0 score.

Led by Coach Bellisari, the Aces compiled their best record in five years.

Good blocking enabled Rich Lyons to pick up valuable yardage.

Under the direction of head coach Keith Dewese, the Varsity Aces compiled a 3-16 record. The team got off to a fair start in the early season, winning 3 out of 7 games, but those were the only victories for the year.

In tournament play, the Aces showed the Hicksville fans that they had what it took but fell short of beating the Edgerton Bulldogs by only 4 points in the last few seconds of the game.

The highlight of the year came in the Blue Creek game when Senior Ace Rex Gloor broke the school record for number of points in one game, by scoring 35. At the end of the year, he had also broken the record for the year's total, making 387 points, 32 over Tom Metz's previous record.

Coach Dewese explains an important play to the team.

Ron Gump free throws for an extra point.

Junior Leo Camp takes a jump shot as the Pettisville defense closes in.

Senior Rex Gloor attempts another two points.

The Aces Track team, headed by Coach Al Bellisari, ended their season with the most outstanding record ever achieved at HHS. Throughout the spring they won first place trophies at the Napoleon Gold Medal Relays, Defiance Alumni Relays, Antwerp Invitationals, Green Meadows Conference, and the Class A Sectional meet at Ayersville, which was the highlight of the season.

Those placing high enough at Ayersville traveled to Findlay the following week, where Hicksville showed up good against stiff competition. Many came close to qualifying for State, but Phil Repp was the only one who succeeded.

Eight records were broken in the 440 yard dash, mile run, 2 mile run, 120 low hurdles, 880 yard relay, mile relay, high jump, and pole vault.

Phil Repp, left, was Hicksville's highest scoring individual for the 1971 season. He was awarded the MVP trophy at the Spring Sports Banquet, and received trophies for the most outstanding individual at some of the more important meets of the year.

Phil went to State this year where he ran against the toughest competition in Ohio. He broke his own record with a time of 51.3 seconds to capture fourth place, which was indeed outstanding.

There were no pictures available of the participants of three other new records. The mile record was set by Carl Collins. The 880 yard relay team consisted of Larry Keeley, Roger Ferguson, Ted Collins and Rex Gloor. Butch Monroe, Dave Miller, Rex Gloor and Phil Repp broke the mile relay record.

Senior Record Setters

Rex Gloor sails over the high jump bar with plenty of room to spare. He set the new record at 5' 9".

Dave Miller, Rich Lyons, and Mike Adcock all broke the 120 low hurdles record, but the season ended with Dave setting the final time.

Freshman Charlie Collins proved his pole-vaulting ability by clearing a high 11' 9" to set a new record.

Hicksville's Phil Cleland, a junior, ran a fast 2 miles to set the record at 10 minutes and 43 seconds.

Senior Ace, Ted Collins demonstrates his ability in the running long jump. He also holds the 220 yard dash record.

Despite a year-end tally of seven wins and eleven losses, Hicksville's Varsity Baseball team won the Class A Sectional Championship this year under the leadership of Coach Walter Durham.

Senior members were pitcher Keith Miller, Bob Myers, pitcher, Lenny Guilford, 1st base, and Dave Rowan, short-stop. Their experience seemed to give the team a bit of confidence and spirit.

Steve Kees, Barry Conley, and Bob Myers were the three members of the team who batted over .300.

Senior Bob Myers anticipates a bunt.

Getting a hit, Bruce Guilford streaks for first base.

Ron Gump slides into home as Bob Conley tags him out.

Dave and Barb Head Class of 1971

"Apathy In America" was the topic of Val-edictorian David Rowan's speech "Apathy In A Time Of Change." Dave has maintained a straight A average through all his high school years.

Dave was Senior Class President and President of the National Honor Society for the year. He was a member of the Scholarship Team, Boy Scouts, and Baseball all four years of high school. Dave received the Rotary Scholarship on Senior Awards day and was chosen Most Studious for the 1971 Coronation Court.

Dave plans to attend Toledo University and major in law.

Salutatorian Barbara Bruggeman spoke on "The New Responsibility of American Youth" in her Salutatory address at the Ninetieth Annual Commencement exercises on May 23, 1971.

Barb received the Daughters of American Revolution Award and was co-editor of the SPOONDRIFT her Junior year, a member of National Honor Society her Junior and Senior years, and on the Scholarship team her Freshman and Sophomore years. She was also chosen as Most Studious for the 1971 Coronation Court.

She has received a 3.976 throughout four years of high school and plans to attend Adrian College.

Seniors Reenact Scenes From The Old West

"The Kallico Clock" was the theme of the 1971 Coronation. It was a site of a typical western town with shoot-out, saloon girls, schoolhouse, quilting bee and medicine man.

The main event for the evening festivities was the crowning of the royal couple, Queen, Lora Stuckman and King, Rick Miller, and the presentation of the court by Crown Mistress, Jan Carr and Crown Master, Lenny Guilford.

The formal dance featured the "Odyssey" and refreshments were served in the cafeteria by Senior Mothers.

Medicine man, Terry Gloor, tries to convince the townsfolk to buy his new snake medicine.

Five of the Can-can-ettes, Deb Fritz, Deb Thiel, Lora Stuckman, Jo Kaduk, and Laura Green, entertained the patrons of the Kalico saloon.

The town drunk, Randy Hostetler, seems to be enjoying the dancers.

Larry Wonderly demonstrates his skill at batting a ball to his fellow classmates Carol Harter and Mike Haven.

Square dancers Ernie Hurni, Deb Grover, Phil Repp, Cecil Bailey, Rich Lyons, Jane Wonderly, Dave Bauer, and Jan Carr highlight the evening's campfire festivities.

May 23rd Marks the

The Ninetieth Annual Graduation exercises were held on May 23, with Baccalaureate and Commencement on the same day.

Baccalaureate service began at 1:30 p.m. with the Senior processional followed by the invocation and the Collect led by Reverend David Eicher. Music was provided by a Senior sextet. The sermon "First Things" was delivered by Reverend James Wolford.

The 3:00 Commencement began with the Senior processional followed by the invocation given by Reverend Eugene McCormack. The program contained the valedictorian and salutatorian speeches, introduction of the speaker by Mr. Latta, the class address, and presentation of diplomas. Guest speaker Senator Oliver Ocasek from the Ohio Senate presented the Class address entitled "Freedom Is Not Free." The presentation of diplomas by Mr. Paul King preceded the recessional of the graduates.

Senator Ocasek, the Commencement Speaker, stressed the importance of the diplomas to the graduating class.

Faculty Expresses Knowledge Through Teaching

Administration Shapes Tomorrow's Citizens

The Administration Plays an important role in our school but often does not receive proper recognition for its difficult job. They must enforce school policies, but also listen to complaints and problems. They correct, listen, criticize, praise, help and share their knowledge and experience with us. They promote students along the road of education to help them prepare for life.

Superintendent Lester Latta points out coming events for the Seniors to Jan Carr.

The School Board for this year consisted of Mrs. Angeline Camp, Mrs. Martha Green, Mr. Harold Wittig, Dr. Paul Kerr, Mr. Paul King, and Mr. Lloyd Turnbull. Mr. King served as President and Mr. Wittig as Vice President.

Mr. Ringer, High School Principal, explains school policies and the new dress codes to Cindy McDonald.

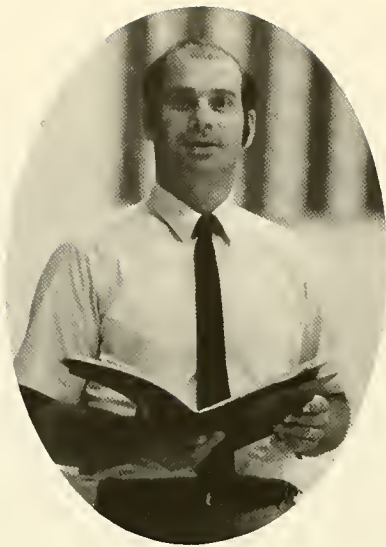

Mrs. Lura Thiel, High School Secretary, keeps things running smoothly for a regular school day.

Mrs. Connie Hostetler, Elementary Secretary, keeps attendance records, makes sure everyone gets lunch and keeps business order for everyone at the Elementary School.

Mr. Ray Hook, Elementary Principal, enjoys his job and his part in the molding of young lives during their elementary years.

School Depends on Personnel

Mr. Don Pierman has a busy daily schedule as custodian of the Elementary building.

Ray Marteniez and Bob Myers also assist at the Elementary building with everyday chores.

A vital part of the daily schedule is food. High school cafeteria cooks are Mrs. Bergman, Mrs. Timbrook and Mrs. Bauer.

Elementary school cooks are Mrs. Haver, Mrs. Rohrs, Mrs. Mohart, and Mrs. Thiel.

Bus drivers, Walter Durham, Mrs. Minnig, Mrs. Christman, Raymond Amore, Ralph Smith, and Galen Green, make it possible for commuting students safely to and from school.

*Expressions Of School Life Seen
Through Many Faces*

1971 Was a Year of Changing Ideas

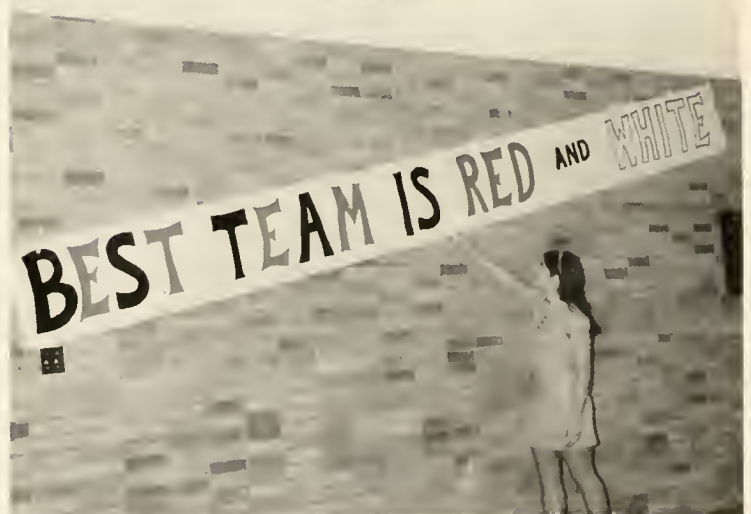

Administration expresses lenience in school dress.

New patterns are expressed by using hall monitors to check hall passes.

HHS spirit prevails as is expressed by the cheerleaders' signs.

We of the 1971 HIXONIAN staff would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who made this yearbook possible. We would especially like to thank Mr. Jerry Barber and Taylor Publishing Company, Mrs. Culler, Mr. Bob Abraham and Powell Studios, Mr. Robert Martin and the teachers and Administration who were so cooperative with us.

Today is the tomorrow we dreamed about yesterday.
